

Bonfire

"Education is not the learning of facts, but the training of the mind to think."

With this in mind, The Bhawanipur Education Society College's Department of Business Administration hosted its annual inter-college management fest, 'BONFIRE,' sponsored by Gioia, to provide a platform for students to demonstrate their abilities.

BONFIRE is an acronym for BONDING-ORGANISING-NEGOTIATION-FOCUS-INTUTION-RESPONSIBILITY and ENTERPRISE.

The 3-day fest initiated with an opening ceremony as it has the aim to bring out the competitive spirit of the students and put them to test.

The opening ceremony was held at The Lalit Great Eastern on 24th March, 2022.

The opening ceremony initiated with the introduction speech of the student representatives of The Business Administration Department of The Bhawanipur Education Society College, Devjyoti Banerjee and Madhav Mohta.

After which with there was lamp lighting inauguration done by the dignitaries to bless the entire fest.

After the lamp lighting there was an opening speech by the emcees Ada Bux and Anusha Akbar where they welcomed all the colleges and discussed about the 30+events that will happen from all dimensions of corporate cultures.

Following which the dignitaries were introduced and felicitated with gift hampers.

Prof. Dr. Suman Kumar Mukerjee, Director General of The Bhawanipur Education Society College, gave an inauguration speech shortly after the opening speech ended. He highlighted the significance of the name “Bonfire” and appreciated students for their active engagement in the events on behalf of the college.

Parveen Agarwal owner of Rajwada Group one of our chief guest for the opening ceremony spoke about his life experiences over the years in entrepreneurial world and shared how to handle the real estate world. He also discussed the competitions that exist in today's world for aspiring young entrepreneurs, as well as how to put their leadership skills to good use in the right places in order to operate a business successfully.

Dr. Rupali Basu, the Director and CEO of Woodlands Multi Specialty Hospital Ltd., began her speech by discussing the country's medical issues, which had reached alarming levels in recent years. She also discussed how they dealt with their patients at difficult times and how bonding and organisation aid helped in the smooth operation of a business over time.

Ms. Shaleni S Biswas, founder of Easy Notes Stationery Pvt. Ltd., is a business legend and one of India's most successful entrepreneurs. Her address began with a discussion about women's empowerment in the fields of business and start-ups. She described how she set up stationery camps in housing societies throughout the pandemic to keep her business afloat. She explained to the management team that managing and bringing in additional ideas for a business or organisation is really vital.

Later on, Dr. Tridib Sengupta, Coordinator of the BBA department of The Bhawanipur Education Society College put forward his valuable thoughts regarding following passion and spoke about the dignitaries and how their roles play an important role in the student life's.

The alumni Dikshya Jha and Khizir Jaffri were felicitated by the Director General of The Bhawanipur Education Society College Prof. Dr. Suman Kumar Mukerjee.

After the dignitaries' speeches, everyone went for breakfast.

The Bonfire'22's foremost event 'Fashion Show', kicked off with a bang and pumped up both the competitors and the audience. The participants of the Fashion Show, which included colleges such as The Heritage Academy, Sister Nivedita University, Loreto College, The Adamas University, and St. Xavier's University, were transformed into beautiful divas by make-up artists from the Lakme Academy, after which they walked down the ramp demonstrating their modelling skills. It gave a hint of the wild trip that the Bonfire attendees were in for.

Competitions like Stress Interview, Shipwreck and Bluff were curated to test the skills of business ability. Stress Interview saw participants being assessed on stress tolerance at the workplace. They were required to keep their composure while handling situations such as workplace unrest, unhappy clients, and work pressure. The participants had to submit their resumes and the judges marked them on their intuitive skills. Students felt it enhanced their ability to perform better in real-life interviews. While Aparna Harnandka from THK Jain College was declared the winner, Aliza Ali from iLead bagged the second position and Elima Basu of NSHM Knowledge Campus placed third.

Shipwreck was a business event with a slight twist. Participants were assigned a particular company from sectors like banking, finance and pharmaceutical. They were assigned a crisis depending on the market economy and asked to present a solution. Avantika Singh, a third-year Business Administration student of BESC, was declared the winner, followed by Arushi Khandewal, a third-year student at St. Xavier's University.

To create a real-life scenario of the stock market, the event Mock stock was designed to test participants' financial management skills, market analysis, and adaptation to changing market conditions.

The main attraction of the event was the BSE-Bhawanipur Stock Exchange. Each representative from the participating institution bid stocks on a real-time basis with their fictitious money under manipulated conditions. Specific scenarios resembling real-life stock market situations were presented to the students. Representatives were required to participate as stock bidders and sellers actively. This event created a chaotic, yet exciting, atmosphere emulating real-life stock markets. Aryan Ramakrishnan from St. Xavier's University won, with Om Gupta, a first-year BBA student of The Bhawanipore Education Society (BESC), coming second and Aditya Kumar Singh from Shree Agrasain College placed third.

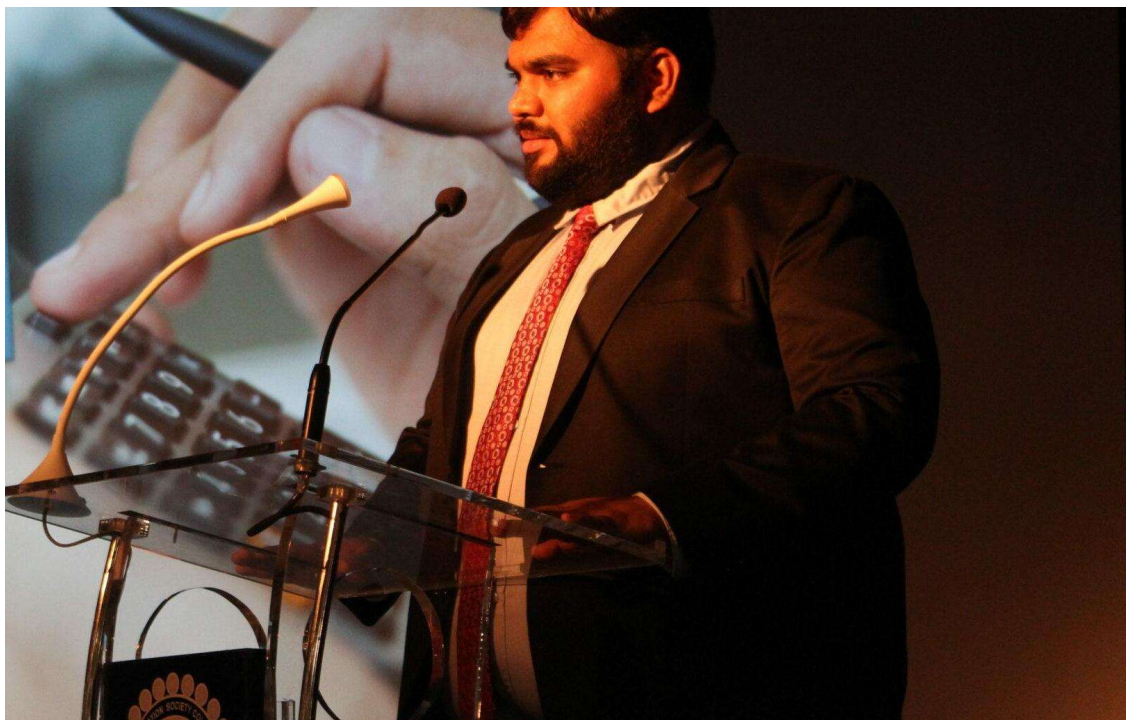

Apart from these business events, there were several literary events such as Extempore, Turncoat Debate and Book Review, where participants used their wit and explored ideas. "We have been working on this for the past six months. We designed events that would incorporate corporate work culture by providing real-time simulation. I believe a lot of effort was put in by the team for this magnificent fest to be pulled off," said Devjyoti Banerjee, a third-year Business Administration student of BESC, who is the student representative at the fest.

The Bhawanipore Education Society College was declared overall winner of the fest, followed by St. Xavier's University and JD Birla Institute being crowned first and second runner, respectively. "B.O.N.F.I.R.E. provided an exhilarating opportunity to participate in a corporate environment," said Kaushik Banerjee, professor, and event coordinator.

Calculator Secrets

The Bhawanipur Education Society College organised the fourth edition of the 'Calculator Secrets' with Prof. Vivek Patwari on 28th March 2022 in-person. Recalling the memories of the third edition, which took place in online mode, students were more exhilarated as an attendance of more than 300 students and faculty members were also present.

Prof. Patwari was felicitated at the onset of a mind-blowing session. It covered different tips and tricks that can be applied by students to calculate everything from square roots to logarithms using a regular old-fashioned calculator to make students more confident 'users of calculators'.

It was an educational illuminating session for the students as they learned shortcuts about the use of calculators which would help them in examinations and real-life situations.

CV Writing Workshop

47000 What Next? Workshop on Dynamics of Capital Market

47,000 What's Next?

An Indian crime drama web series showing the story of rags to riches, “SCAM 1992”, the story behind the life of Harshad Mehta – the infamous “Bachchan of BSE”, revolving around the capital market, where companies list their shares and people buy them at the listed price – this is what we all understand but, apart from this the capital market has a much broader scope. The student at the college got a chance to improve their knowledge about capital market at a 4-day workshop from 27th January to 30th January 2021 on the Dynamics of Capital Market.

The first day of the event was taken by Mr. Chetan Panchamia, on the topic, Technical Analysis of the capital market, a trading discipline employed to evaluate investments and identify trading opportunities in price trends and patterns seen on charts, a study in SENSEX.

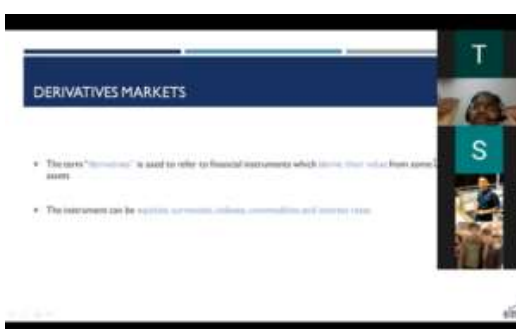

The second day was about Fundamental Analysis of the Capital Market by Mr. Abhishek Dubey, where he compared the stock market with many real-life examples through which every student was able to understand what Fundamental Analysis meant, furthermore Bull and Bear market were discussed in this session.

The third session was about Futures and Options. Options and Futures are both contracts' products in the capital market, also known as F&O. This segment was explained by Mr. Chetan Panchamia on the third day of the workshop. The stock market is not only about making money but also about the correct path of making investments and the correct time to invest. It also explains the angle of Financial Planning in the stock market which is very much necessary in the financial market because if we invest correctly, we can get correct outcome, if we assess our risks correctly and consider the situations, we will get a good amount of return. This was the last session, taken by Mr. Tapas Saha.

The 4-day workshop was interactive and beneficial for the students. Many doubts were raised by students which were answered in a very effective way by the distinguished speakers of the workshop. This workshop was a journey to the capital market attended by around 60 students. The workshop was conducted online on Zoom and was hosted by Aditi Sinolia.

Workshop on how to google better

The session was introduced by Dr. Dona Ganguly, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science followed by the Welcome Address by Prof. Amala Dhandhanina, Associate Professor and Head, Department of Political Science. The workshop aimed to equip the participants with the required skills to get more accurate Google results in order to best utilise the search engine. The resource person showed us how to narrow our search by specifying the file type, mentioning specific websites and using various syntaxes like similar (~) or double quotes (" "). Participants were also introduced to the idea of searching through an existing image using the Google Lens feature. As the participants included primarily young students who are new to academia, the basics of Google Scholar as taught during this session helped greatly in understanding the nuances of referencing and bibliography. The session was concluded with a vote of thanks by Prof. Lopamudra Majumdar of the Political Science Department.

The workshop was very interactive as well as informative with live demonstrations of the Google operations being shown. This session was much needed at a time when the online mode of operating has become the new normal.

Investing in Capital Market

“In investing, what is comfortable is rarely profitable.” — By Robert Arnott

The Indian stock exchange holds a place of prominence not only in Asia but also at the global stage. One must have a proper knowledge of stock market to ace its game and earn what they want. Rightful investing is the main key to stock market and to give the young generation of today, the Bull's Eye Collective of The Bhawanipur College organised an event on “Investing in Capital Market” for its students on 8th December, Wednesday, in the Placement Hall of the campus from 4 p.m. onwards.

The event started with the seniors introducing the newcomers about capital market, what it is and sharing their predictions as an amateur on the future and structure of stock market in India and then Prof. Dilip Shah sharing his knowledge and experiences on the market with the students.

Eminent guests from Edelwisse (an Indian Financial services company) , Mr Arghya Chakrabarty , Mr Vivek Gandhi and Mr Siddharth came and spoke on the position of the Indian stocks in today's time and discussed with the students the three most important questions while dealing with the market , that are – which stock to invest in , when to buy and when to sell it and an insight discussion of analysis of stocks in Technical ( past ) , Fundamental ( present ) and Derivative ( future ) respect .

The stage was then handed over to Prof. Vikas Mundra, a faculty member of the college, who further continued a detailed explanation on the process of, "How to invest in capital market?". Savings bank account, Demat account, Trading account, stockbrokers and types of stockbrokers, stock exchanges were some of the things he discussed.

The event came to an end with a question answer session between the guest speaker and the students, followed by a memento being handed over to the guests. The collective plans to organise such brainstorming events in the future.

Mathamagic

Our professor and speaker of the event was Professor Dushyant Chaturvedi. He taught some interesting tricks of doing maths in a simple and faster way. The best part of the session was that professor explained about the square roots from 1 – 9 which in turn are very beneficial and useful while doing long sums.

The session ended around 3 P.M. It was concluded by the students expressing their experience and feedback from the session. It was a wonderful session with the magic on the knowhows of Maths. We continue to be organising such educational sessions in the future.

Public Speaking Workshop

"All the great speakers were bad speakers at first."

Ralph Waldo Emerson, American essayist

From the 10th of August, 2022 a public speaking workshop was conducted at The Bhawanipur Education Society College by Ms. Samiksha Khanduri, who is an educator and author. The workshop was conducted over a course of 15 days, each session of two hours and divided into 2 separate batches of students (11am – 1pm and 3pm – 5pm). 30 students, mostly 2nd year and 3rd year undergraduates participated in the workshop and all students are welcome to join the subsequent sessions.

The main aim of this workshop was that students should feel comfortable communicating in public and forming inter- personal relationships. The event started off with some interactive games which would make them familiar with the idea of public speaking, like 'On Me Now', where students have to talk about things they are wearing or carrying with them at the moment, namely their personal belongings. Another such activity was 'I have a Dream ', inspired by Martin Luther King Jr in which students talk about their aspirations and life goals. 'Spotlight effect' was an activity dealing with issues like stage fright by making students talk about their weakness, this was also dealt with using a SWOT analysis. The first hour of the session was about the various principles and basic concepts of public speaking and the next hour for the students to interact with the teacher, as we see them trying to articulate their opinions about different schools of thought. The students are further encouraged to talk about their issues through one-on-one sessions with Ms. Samiksha Khanduri. The last day of the workshop was about 'stage presence and the preparation for delivery of speech' where they will eventually give a speech, hence fulfilling the objectives of their training. They will also be receiving a merit certificate from the college on successful completion of the workshop. The sessions have been extremely enjoyable for the teacher and the students alike and the Bhawanipur College looks forward to such highly productive interactive sessions in the future.

Reveal' 22

Decades of research link creativity with the intrinsic motivation to learn. When students are focused on a creative goal, they become more absorbed in their learning and more driven to acquire the skills they need to accomplish it.

As the saying goes, "Creativity is intelligence having fun" we often witness several fun fairs where ideas are presented in an applied form. A business fair is one place where people can display their crafty minds and a hint of corporate techniques.

To examine and enhance the creativity of its students, The Business administration department of The Bhawanipur Education Society College organised a one-day product launch event named "Reveal" on 13th April 2022 in Valia Hall from 9 am.

REVEAL is an acronym for Reach-Energize-Viral Giveaway-Excavate-Achieve and Launch.

As the name suggests, "Reveal" provides a platform for business-minded students to showcase their ideas in the form of a non-existing product, ready to launch.

The product launch event commenced in the auspicious presence of the dignitaries.

The emcees for the day, Jhanvi Khandhadia and Dhairya Vora, called all the respected dignitaries upon the stage to begin the ceremony by lighting the lamp. The lamp lighting ceremony was followed by the inaugural classical dance performed by the students of the business administration department.

After that, Prof. Dr. Suman Mukerjee, Director General of The Bhawanipur Education Society College, was given the podium to share a few words of encouragement. He motivated the audience and the participants with his real-world successful business examples and stated how companies approach students with creative business plans and adopt them. He encouraged students to instil the habit of creating a business plan and communicate their ideas with the rest of the world to gain knowledge and experience.

The Dean of Student Affairs, Prof. Dilip Shah, spoke a few words about 'Reveal' and how important it is to hold a business fair once in a while.

Later, Dr Tridib Sengupta took over the stage and motivated the students by giving them ideas concerning market behaviour and product creation and exhibition. The inaugural programme of Reveal concluded with the dignitaries performing a ribbon-cutting ceremony.

The student representatives Devjyoti Banerjee and Madhav Mohta then gave an inaugural speech and declared the product exhibition open.

There were eight stalls, and each stall had six to seven participants. All the teams were given a substantial amount of time to prepare their products and advertise them so that they could gather votes.

The spectators had a huge role in this event as they analyzed each product and then voted for the one they felt would make a difference if introduced in the market.

All the products made by the participants were not only innovative, but the participants left no stone unturned to advertise their products in a unique way to attract the crowd.

Any product is successful if it can create demand in the market and this event made the participant experience the same.

Each stall had different attractions, such as refreshments and live demonstrations of the product, making it exciting for the spectators to learn how viable the product is. The stalls were decorated with posters and banners, and a few students also decorated their stalls with waste products to promote the concept of sustainability.

This event gave the participants a firsthand experience of dealing with people and making them interested in their product. The participants explained the USP and the use of the products they created to make the crowd understand why their product stands a chance if launched in the market.

There was a head-to-head competition among all the stalls, with votes coming in from spectators from all teachers, including faculty members, who were shown a few fascinating products.

A stall 'ENERBRE' with healthy food products and energy bars grabbed the crowd's attention due to their excellent composition of health and taste in one product at an affordable price.

Spectators from several institutions, including JD Birla Institute, St. Xavier's College, Ashutosh College, and Shri Shikshayatan College, attended the product exhibition and gained valuable knowledge by seeing a product's business plan put into action.

The spectators were constantly voting for their favourite stalls. The votes were counted at an interval of one hour as people were voting continuously. The voting procedure was supervised by different faculty members appointed at a particular time.

Eventually, the event ended, and the results were announced after all the votes were counted.

The winners were then felicitated by the teacher-in-charge, Dr Subhabrata Ganguly.

Team 7 with Shlok Rai, Esha Dasgupta, Saachi Dugar, Madhav Nand Garg and Raghav Agarwal with organizer Urvi Bajoria got the third position due to their remarkable idea 'Cash the trash'. They created a service where a consumer can submit trash cans and will get cash or a coupon in return. This idea stimulated interest amongst the youngsters and encouraged them to be responsible towards the environment.

Subsequently, Team 1 with Ada Bux, Anusha Akbar, Esha Jane Gomes, Isshita Debnath, Sraboni Chanda and Richa Poddar with organizer Mahek Bhaiya won the second place for their creation 'Diluva', which had the idea of making it easy for women and men in stain removal. They demonstrated their product by removing pen stains and other stains in front of the crowd, which showed how genuine and cost-effective their product is.

Lastly, the first position was bagged by Team 6 with Priyanka days, Aayushi Bilakhia, Nandini Chowdhury, Vishwesh Singh, Aman Jha with organizer Ankita Chakraborty for their phenomenal performance. They came up with fuel made out of plastic, and its composition left everyone in awe. They decorated their stall in such a way that it spoke about their product and established their presence successfully, which attracted the crowd.

The event was a massive success due to the unending efforts put in by the Event Management Teacher Coordinator, Prof. Kaushik Banerjee and the student representatives Devjyoti Banerjee and Madhav Mohta. The BBA event management society also contributed to make this event successful.
